

NEW-JERSEY ITEMS.

"for mother's sake." This heroic remark encouraged all hands to remain perfectly calm until assistance came, which shortly did in the person of an old gentleman named Weeks, who ultimately succeeded in rescuing the party from their perilous position.

ASSAULT FROM JEALOUSY.—Alex. Oliver and his blue-eyed Bridget were taking a walk on Sunday in the vicinity of Harlem when John White, who was jealous of the attentions shown the lady, pitched into Oliver and beat him most unmercifully, for which he was arrested and committed by Justice Pearson to answer.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—At 7½ o'clock yesterday morning, while the schooner Flying Arrow, hence for Navy Bay, was lying at anchor in the Lower Bay, J. H. Eckley of Lincolnvile, Me., aged eighteen years, a seaman, fell from the forecastle head on deck and was instantly killed. His body was recovered and brought to Staten Island for interment. The deceased was the only support of a widowed mother.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Coroner O'Donnell yesterday held an inquest at No. 9 Mulberry-st., upon the body of James Denane, a native of Ireland, 26 years of age, who died on Sunday night from the effects of internal hemorrhage, caused by an accident which happened to him on the morning of that day at Staten Island. It appears that he was about to jump from a bridge, and, having been prevented from the spring, by swinging, and having fallen with great force against him and knocked him senseless to the ground, causing a rupture of some of the intestines, which produced death the same night at his place of residence. The Jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

FOUND DROWNED.—The body of James Hammond, late a laborer in the employ of the Oswego Line of canal-boats, was found yesterday in the East River, near Pier No. 5. The deceased had been missing for two days, and is supposed to have accidentally fallen overboard. Coroner Hilton held an inquest upon the body, and the Jury rendered the verdict usual in such cases. Deceased was a native of Ireland, 30 years of age, and has left a family.

August Parker, a boy 7 years old, whose parents reside at No. 89 Jackson-st., was accidentally drowned on Sunday afternoon in the foot of Jackson-st., East River. It appears that while washing his feet he fell into the dock and perished. The body was recovered, and Coroner Gamble held an inquest upon it. Verdict accordingly.

THE LATE FATAL ACCIDENT AT THE NEW-YORK HOTEL.—Coroner Hilton yesterday held an inquest upon the body of James Dougherty, one of the painters who fell from the fifth story of the New-York Hotel on Saturday last, and was instantly killed. The particulars of the case have already been published. A verdict of accidental death was rendered by the Jury. Deceased was a native of Ireland, 35 years of age. He leaves a wife and family. M'Lane, another painter who fell at the same time, is recovering.

FEMALE PUGILISTS.—Two nymphs of the pave named Adelia Henderson and Agnes New met in Broadway opposite Thompson's Saloon, and after a war of words had passed between them squared off for a fight. In the third round Adelia was floored by a blow upon her nasal organ which sent the claque flying. Bleeding and swearing she got up and fought with a knife cut her adversary in the hip and inflicted. Her friends then carried her off, but yesterday she was arrested by Officer Lord and locked up.

(Advertisement.)

EUREKA.—KRIDER'S PATENT GAS REGULATOR is the only thing that ever accomplished the complete control of the consumption of gas, saving to the consumer (as usual) one to 30 per cent, with a more beautiful light. For sale, $100 under the trade name of EUREKA. Write for full information, and specimens invited, as affording a profitable investment. Call and examine illustrations at No. 26 Broadway.

J. L. DOUGLASS, Secretary.

(Advertisement.)

LONG ISLAND RAILROAD—CHEAP EXCURSIONS now run to SAG HARBOR AND GREENPORT every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.Leave South Ferry, Brooklyn, at 9 A.M. Fare to Sag Harbor and Greenport, 75 cents; fare to each.

(Advertisement.)

DELIGHTFUL RESIDENCES ON THE BANKS OF THE HUDSON.—There is not a better place for a summer residence than this city, both in the town and the village of Yonkers. It is accessible several times a day by railroad and steamboat. To those who contemplate purchasing a home in the country we shall call their attention to the advertisement of Mr. Aspinwall, J. B. Moore, & Co., who will sell at Auction, To-morrow, at the Merchants' Exchange, Sixty-four COTTAGE AND VILLA SITES on Riverdale, Valentine and Franklin-st., in the Village of Yonkers. The sites range from 10 to 20 acres, quarter miles each. A large portion of the property is situated on the banks of the Hudson River, and affords an extensive view of the surrounding country. The location is said to be healthy and the neighborhood is excellent.

(Advertisement.)

JEANNE MARIE.—The Belle of Cherry Valley has excited the pure mind of Temperance and furnished a model to our fair female population. Thomas Baker, who has produced an admirable melody—light, sparkling and graceful as is the faire theme of both poet and musician. "Jeanne Marie" possesses all the elements of immediate popularity. She can be heard on every Pier in New-York. The charm of Hall has not been equalled by HORACE WATERS, No. 363 Broadway.

(Advertisement.)

RADICAL CURE OF HUMURE, PILLS AND FISTULAS.—EDWARD H. DIXON, M. D., Editor of The Scalpel, and Operating and Consulting Surgeon, No. 42 Schuyler, has established a spacious and commodious private Hospital for the reception of these cases that require protracted attendance. The above diseases are now cured without the knowledge of Dr. D. refers to a great number of patients cured by him in this City. Office hours from 9 to 12, 3 to 7, and 7 to 9, evenings.

(Advertisement.)

FROZEN COFFEE A PERFECT BEVERAGE FOR HOT WEATHER.—M. MAILLARD having just arrived from Paris, offers a new article, FROZEN COFFEE (iced), the most thorough refreshment for this season. Gentlemen and Ladies, who are fond of this article, will find it to be found only at No. 621 Broadway.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

THE LIQUOR CASES.—The trial of Thos. Berry of the Eastern District, which was to have taken place yesterday before Justice Jacobs and a Jury, was postponed by mutual agreement until after the decision of the Court held before the Supreme Court.

The case of Wm. Guischard will take the same course.

Six persons, arrested for intoxication by the Fifth District Police, were brought before Justice Jacobs yesterday morning, and not one of them could recollect where he obtained his liquor. Three of them were fined, one gave bonds to appear for trial, one was sent to the Penitentiary, and two were discharged.

ARRESTS FOR DRUNKENNESS IN BROOKLYN.—The Police of the Consolidated City arrested 21 persons for drunkenness on Saturday and the night previous, of whom the following were disposed of by Justices Smith and Curtis: John Canfield, James Henry, Wm. McDonald, Ellen Kelly, Patrick Gillett, Jas. Nolan, Margaret Alexander, Bridie Kelly, John Ware, Langhorne Donly, Michael McNamee, Isabella Price, James Gillett. They were each fined $10, and in default committed.

BAILED.—Joseph Monroe, who was arrested on Saturday, on the suspicion of abstracting a portmanteau from a lady's pocket at the Fulton Ferry, was admitted to bail yesterday morning to answer.

COURT OF SESSIONS.—This Court convened yesterday, and the Grand Jury, having completed their labors, presented some 25 bills of indictment, and were discharged for the Term.

William Duggan, convicted during the present term of grand larceny, in stealing and slaughering a cow at Sheep's Head Bay nearly two years ago, was arraigned and sentenced to the State Prison for two years.

Charles Meyers and John Schmidt, two boys convicted of burglary, were also arraigned. They stated they were under ten years of age. The Court said the manner in which the burglaries (two in one night) had been planned and executed, led them to believe that they were older than that in years, and very old in crime. They were sentenced to the State Prison for five years.

John Duffy, George Ferguson, Timothy Kyle, John McGinney, boys 12 years old and under, were arraigned on an indictment for burglary in the first degree in robbing a house in Haverstraw-place some months since. Most of the goods were found pawned in Catharine-st., New-York. They pleaded guilty and were sent to the House of Refuge.

John Gauley, one of the same party, pleaded not guilty, and was remanded to jail; when the Court adjourned for the Term.

Judge Moore announced that he was about to leave on Wednesday, the 1st of August, and Mary Jane Watson, his wife, and 2 sons, a daughter and a son, will go with him.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE.—The members of this Institute are requested to attend the funeral of Mr. George W. Bush at his residence, No. 239 Park-av., this day, July 31, at 2 o'clock P.M.

DEAD.

MR.—On Sabbath morning, July 29, GEORGE BACON, Esq., the author of "The Great Inhaling Remedy for Asthma, Consumption, and all Diseases of the Chest," died in this city, in the 71st year of his age.

He was born at Boston, Mass., in 1802, and died at the same place on June 25, 1855. He was educated at the New-York Academy of Medicine, and practiced as a physician there. His practice was limited to Boston, and he was a member of the Boston Medical Society. He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.

He was a man of great personal character, and his death is a loss to the medical profession.